

2018-2019 NATIONAL TEAM MANAGER AND ASSISTANT MANAGER

The AAC is accepting applicants for the following positions with the 2018-2019 AAC National Team, who will be competing in the Netherlands in spring 2019:

Manager / Assistant Manager

If you're supremely organized, great under pressure and up for a little adventure, consider applying for a position with the National Team Management Group.

Manager/Assistant Manager duties will include working with the AAC National Team Management Group to:

- assist the team with all aspects of preparation before / during/ and after the event, including making travel arrangements, and complying with health/veterinary requirements;
- work to coordinate information and define/accomplish goals;
- work with team members to coordinating fundraising campaigns;
- assist team members with selecting and acquiring uniforms and other gear;
- coordinate remote coaching and other preparatory exercises;
- act as liaison between team members and event officials at the event;
- manage team members at the event

Those with previous experience in organizing international travel with dogs, or who have International agility competition experience will be given priority. Great communication and people skills, a flexible schedule, and bilingualism will also be considered assets.

These are volunteer positions; however, flight/hotel/vehicle expenses/and a team uniform will be sponsored by the AAC (up to a maximum amount which will be determined by the National Management Group) for the Manager and Assistant Manager will be covered for the IFCS WAC 2019 event.

Application forms can be found here.

Application deadline is: July 5, 2018.
