Purchasing Order Terms & Conditions

These Purchase Order Terms & Conditions (the “Terms & Conditions”) apply to all purchase orders issued by Agility Association of Canada (“AAC”).

Purchase Order. Any purchase order issued by AAC shall be subject to these Terms and Conditions. Vendor’s provision of goods or services to AAC shall constitute acceptance to these Terms & Conditions. No additional terms shall be made a part of these Terms & Conditions, or of any offer made by AAC to Vendor, without the express written consent of AAC.

Warranty. Vendor warrants all goods which it may sell to AAC for a period of one (1) year against defects in design, materials, and workmanship. The warranty period shall start at the date of the completion of delivery.

Preemption. In the event of conflicting provisions among the purchase order, these Terms & Conditions, and Vendor’s proposal/quote, provisions from the following documents will control in the order listed herein: (a) the purchase order, (b) these Terms & Conditions, and (c) Vendor’s proposal/quote, with the purchase order superceding any conflicting terms in the other documents.

Payment Terms. Payment shall be made by individuals when ordering the shirts. Vendor shall provide a website order form for a limited time where individuals order the shirts. Shipping and handling fees should be specified.

Delivery. In the event a good or service to be supplied by Vendor is not delivered to the location and by the date specified, if any, on the AAC purchase order relating to such good or service then such failure shall entitle AAC to refuse acceptance of further deliveries of goods or to cancel its contract with Vendor in whole or in part. All goods provided by Vendor must be delivered to AAC judges across Canada as listed in the order.
